Annie Brady (Wicked Witch) is excited to be a senior after four amazing shows at Camden Hills. She enjoys singing loudly, dancing badly, and drinking apple cider. Annie is forever grateful to the amazing Mrs. Murphy and hopes to study musical education after high school. She hopes you think of how fortunate the cast is to be under such great direction while you enjoy this hilarious show.

Carly Berke (Red Riding Hood, Duloc Dancer) is a junior here at Camden Hills and she is so excited to be a part of this production! This will be the third show she has participated in here at CHRHS. She hopes you all enjoy the show!

Jesse Bifulco Jr. (Young Shrek, Grumpy the Dwarf) has been in two other plays, the Race to Tillsonburg and Fairy Tale Protection League, but this is his first high school play. He's thrilled to be an ogre in this year's musical, Enjoy!

Gretta Buckley (Ace of Spades, Duloc and Rat Dancer) is a junior this year. She has done the musical all three years at CHRHS and is very excited to perform in Shrek. Can't wait to shuffle up the crowd!

Jonah Carter (Donkey) is a senior this year and has been in the musical arts since Elementary School. He's been in the District 3 chorus since he was in the seventh grade. Last year he made the All State Chorus. This is his fourth year in the musical and the first year where he's gotten a lead role. He hopes you enjoy the show!

Jacob Corney (Shrek) in the last 3 years, has risen from the oppression of an evil queen, purchased and foreclosed an 18th-century opera house, and risen to the command of a 50's delinquent street-gang. Although this year has shaped up to be his greatest adventure yet, it has never been easy – his life can be a bit of a swamp sometimes. He cannot complete four fantastic years without first thanking all of his friends and colleagues for supporting him; Mrs. Murphy, as well as all of his teachers, for having so much faith and trust in him; his parents and sister, for accepting him as part of them, despite his flaws and habits. Thankyou to everyone in this godsent community for shepherding just one more crazy kid and making him truly something special.

Elizabeth Cummons (Humpty Dumpty) is very excited to be in Shrek. She was in last year's West Side Story as a jet girl, and is happy to be Humpty Dumpty in this wacky, fun show!

Duncan Hall (Farquaad) is completing his senior year, his fourth year participating in musicals and other acting opportunities at CHRHS. He also enjoys performing with his cello playing anything from orchestral and chamber music to fiddle and jazz. Perhaps the tallest person in the cast, our director has seen fit to cast him in the shortest role, but he has embraced the persona wholeheartedly, scheduling weekly appointments to the shrink to work on his legs. In his spare time (which isn't much), Duncan composes digital music, contra dances, pretends to play the piano, and finds hang gliding home after school faster and more relaxing than taking the bus.

Lydia Hill (Duloc Dancer, Wedding Choir) is a sophomore at CHRHS and was in West Side Story last year. She is looking forward to participating in Shrek,the Musical. Lydia is an energetic, enthusiastic person and enjoys Musical elements with all her heart.

In fact, he has recently decided that all he really wants in life is to be a kid in a play, which he hopes you'll enjoy.

Grace Olsen (White Rabbit) is a freshman who is new to show business! She's excited to be in this year's show - and many more!

"What Makes Us Special, Makes Us Strong"

Why perform Shrek, the Musical? Great music, lasting messages, and a bit of irreverent humor. It seems there is something in this show for everyone to love.

What I love about this show is the music and the message that it sends to our students - and to all of us. My first favorite song was "Freak Flag." The phrase: "what makes us special, makes us strong" rings true. Why do teachers teach? Because our students are interesting, special, evolving, growing, exciting persons. Together, we work and learn; making interesting discoveries along the way.

What makes a Camden Hills musical production special? For me (in addition to the chance to work with students in creating a story) it's all of the behind-the-scenes activity. The CHRHS production of Shrek would not even be possible without the help of people like Terri Harper Ralston, who is so giving of her time and expertise in the crafting of make-up and wigs. When I wanted to do this show, I first went to Terri and asked, "can we do this?!" Thank you Terri for being ready to share your time and talents. And then there were all of the costumes to create. When Shrek, the Musical opened on Broadway, it hit a record of being the musical with the highest costume budget ever! Our costumes are special because we have the talented and creative Mary Wells leading a large team of students and parents who have been sewing, fabric painting, and creating a huge number of dazzling outfits. And then there are the endless details such as set construction, light design, and tech details directed by Rick Ash; scene painting, directed by Carolyn Brown; photography by Marti Stone, a host of musicians, community members, and parents. The list goes on and on.

Our students are special. They have designed scenery, created a dragon, rats, and a growing nose. As performers, they are unique and colorful. Yes "Freak Flag" is my favorite song. Yet with every rehearsal, I have a new favorite: "I Know It's Today" culminates with a delightful trio featuring some of our young singers in the community. "Forever" is a favorite that will leave you with chills and in awe of the powerful dragon. And the poignant "Who'd I Be" tears at the heartstrings. Each rehearsal, I exclaim, "That is my favorite song!" I think it comes back to the fact that the energy that our students bring to each production (including all of the fascinating behind-the-scenes details) makes everyone special – and that's what makes us strong!

Enjoy the Show!

- Kim Murphy
